

32nd Street Farmers Market
Summer/Fall Season Applications
2018

• Here is the information you will need for the Market in 2018:

- . Read all materials and make sure you know the operating guidelines. Fill out your application and turn it in on time. You must have a permit from the Baltimore City Health Department to sell in the market. If you need one, once you are accepted apply and pay the fee at 1001 East Fayette Street, Baltimore 21202 (410-396-4424).
- Those applicants who have not turned in a copy of their Certificate of Liability Insurance listing the 32nd St. Market must do so with their applications in order to be considered for summer/fall.
- The security/port-a-pot fee will be $280 if paid upfront and $12 if paid weekly.

SUMMER MARKET DATES: June 9, 2018 through November 17, 2018

- Vendors must arrive by 6:45 a.m. to be guaranteed their spaces.
- If you cannot attend, you must call Marc at 410-917-1496.
- You must stop selling at the ringing of the noon bell.

MARKET FEES, space 12 ft.

- Single, producers----$475; non-producers----$900
- 1 1/2 spaces----$712.50
- 2 spaces----$950
- 3 spaces----$1,425
- Charge for food permit (if you have samples of produce or prepared foods)----$65 for low risk, $285 for moderate risk, $520 for high risk(Health Dept. will determine).

Farmers: Indicate produce times and include a map of farm.

Please send a check for the entire amount (or at least 50%) by March 10th. If you are accepted, the remainder is due April 14th. If you are not accepted, your check will be returned. Failure to meet deadlines=loss of space! Mail applications to

32nd Street Farmers Market c/o Marc Rey
221 Ridgemedede Rd. Unit 303
Baltimore, MD 21210